Think Local. Be Local. Love Local.

Several studies have shown that when you buy from an independent, locally owned business, rather than a nationally owned business, significantly more of your money is used to make purchases from other local businesses, service providers and farms thus continuing to strengthen the economic base of our community. Local businesses are owned by people who live in this community, are less likely to leave, and are more invested in the community's future. This is what makes a community a home. Our home. So when you're out shopping for that perfect gift, or having the occasional date night, be sure to think of home first. Salina Downtown is the heart of our home. Home is where the heart is.

Sylvia Rice - Visit Salina Director

Sylvia Rice joined the Chamber's Convention and Visitors staff in 1991, first specializing in the convention market. Years of experience in hotel sales, operations and management instilled a strong commitment to great customer service and providing a warm welcome to our visitors, the basic tenants upon which the Visit Salina program is built today. Her primary responsibilities include marketing, advertising, publications, administration, budgeting, staff development and the group/leisure markets. She serves as the Chamber representative staffing the SculptureTour Salina project, now in its 5th year. Sylvia is passionate about tourism and the role Salina plays in creating the Kansas experience. She is a past president and serves on the Board of Directors of the Kansas I-70 Association and the Travel Industry Association of Kansas (TIAK), and represents Salina in other statewide tourism coalitions.

Sylvia attended Kansas Technical Institute in Salina, is a graduate of the US Chamber Institutes of Organizational Management, and has earned the TIAK designation of Kansas Destination Specialist and certification in the Kansas Tourism new curriculum "Kansas At Your Service".

Sylvia and husband Richard live in Salina, and have three grown children and seven grandchildren, who are her favorite pastime. Contact Sylvia at the Visit Salina office, srice@salinakansas.org or (785) 827-9301.

Ron Stratman

Stratman appointed to Chamber Board

Ron Stratman, owner of Accurate Electric, Inc., 510 N. Santa Fe, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Chamber to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Trent Davis. Dr. Davis resigned after being elected to the Salina City Commission. Ron's term will expire December 31, 2017.

Nominations due for Salina Business Hall of Fame

Time is running out for nominations for the 2015 class of the Salina Business Hall of Fame. Nominations are due in the Chamber office by 5pm, Friday, July 10. Categories for nominations include: Pioneer Award - 1858-1925; Historic Award - 1926-1975; Contemporary Award - 1976-present. Nominations can be made by both Chamber members and the general public. Individuals nominated in previous years will be considered again this year. Nomination forms and eligibility criteria are available at the Chamber office, 120 W. Ash, or can be downloaded by clicking on "Hall of Fame" on the Chamber website homepage at www.salinakansas.org. The inductees will be honored at a special luncheon this fall.

35th Annual KKOA Leadsled Spectacular Cruisin' In!

11th year in Salina promises to be bigger, better, and cooler than ever!
Article by Jerry Titus, KKOA President

For the 11th consecutive year, Salina will welcome those KRAZY KRUISERS with the Kustom Kemps of America (KKOA)! Oakdale Park is the hot-spot where the estimated 1800+ Kustom Kemps, Hotrods, Drag Machines and their drivers will descend upon Salina for the last full weekend of July (23-26), for their annual nationwide Leadsled Spectacular event.

A “Kustom Kemp” is hip, slang talk used by kool teenagers in the 50’s and 60’s to indicate a kustomized car or truck. And, you’ll see the ‘koollest kustomized kemps’ on wheels, NATIONWIDE, coming to Salina throughout this Spectacular 4-day event. After traveling to different U.S. cities for 24 years, KKOA moved the legendary Leadsled Spectacular to Salina in 2004. Since settling in Salina, it has grown to utilize all of Salina’s hotels/motels, two of Salina’s City parks, Salina’s main drag, Santa Fe Ave, and the beautiful Stiefel Theatre, to handle all the kool attractions it creates.

It begins with the 5th annual Spectacular Sundown Cruise where 100’s of hot-rodders will make passes up and down Santa Fe in front of jam-packed sidewalks of spectators on Thursday evening, July 23, starting at 7:30pm. The parade type atmosphere is free and open to the public. It’s also a great way to get a glimpse of what you’ll see in the park over the weekend.

Always a BIG draw of the event is the “Run-Whatcha’-Brung Friday Evening Drags” south of Dean Evans Stadium just off Markley Road. Drags start at 5pm and run till dusk. Watch 100’s of hotrods, kustoms, and special exhibition drag cars making 1/8th mile passes down the legendary old Salina Airport runway, where they staged professional drag races in the 50’s. Admission is $10 per person for bleacher area seating.

Don’t miss the “KING OF ROCK & ROLL Spectacular Concert”, Saturday night, July 25th, 8pm, at the Stiefel Theatre, featuring Elvis tribute artist, Vince King, endorsed by Elvis Presley Enterprises, and Grand Champion of the Elvis Presley EXPO competition in Memphis, TN. Plus, having a large fan club base. Vince starts with the young Elvis Memphis years on Sun Label, travels through the movie years, and the 1968 Elvis Comeback TV Special, and last but not least finales with the electrifying jumpsuit, Las Vegas years of the 70’s. The show also features the fabulous “Spinout Band with the Spinettes”, and as Master of Ceremonies, Branson & Las Vegas singer/songwriter Eddie Valen. Tickets are $20, first come first serve basis. Experience why Elvis Presley was, and still remains today, The King of Rock & Roll.

The BIG show is the “Show and Shine”, Friday, Saturday and Sunday in beautiful Oakdale Park, featuring: over 1,800 car entrants; Hollywood celebrities Cynthia Pepper – Elvis’ leading lady in the movie “Kissin’ Cousins”, and Kevin Dobson of Kojak and Knots Landing TV fame; $2,000 two age group (18-39 and 40+) Pin Up & Lookers Beauty Contests; Vintage Spoke-tacular Bicycle Show; legendary Hall of Fame kustom car builders, automotive vendors, Pin Strippers, Swappers, Model Car & Truck Spectacular, and food vendors; Two stages of live Rock & Roll and Rock-A-Billy music; Top-chopping cars on site at the Backyard and Godzilla Garage with California customizers Bill Hines and Keith Dean; $5,000 in cash awards and the Top 25 coveted awards at the Spectacular Awards Ceremony on Sunday.

Admission to the show is by day pass, available at the gate: $12 on Friday, $15 on Saturday and $10 on Sunday. Kids 12 and under are FREE. Show hours at Oakdale Park: Fri. and Sat. 9am-5pm, Sun. 9am-2pm. Spectators should park at the Bicentennial Center, and enter via the north bridge. For more information, contact KKOA: (417) 847-2940, website: www.kustomkempsofamerica.com, email: kkemps09@centurytel.net, kustomkempsofamericafacebook.

Convention Corner

The Kansas Department of Agriculture is hosting a workshop to assist the Kansas feed industry on the development of a Hazard Analysis Critical Control Points (HACCP) plan. The HACCP/Preventive Controls for Animal Feed workshop is designed specifically for the Kansas bio-fuels and ethanol industry. Featured speakers are Dave Fairfield, Vice president, Feed Services, National Grain and Feed Association and Matt Frederking, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs and Operations, RALCO Nutrition. The event will be held July 14 and 15 at American Ag Credit in Salina. Dana Minihan, Compliance Education Coordinator for KDA is coordinating the event. Questions may be directed to her at Dana.Minihan@kda.ks.gov or (785) 564-6660.

Live Well Saline County will host a state-wide summit Tuesday, August 4 at the Salina Bicentennial Center. Registration begins at 9am and the Live Well Saline County Summit will be 10am-3pm. Patty Cantrell, Regional Food Solutions, featured speaker, will bring an economic development approach to local and regional foods. Patty brought her passion for regional food system development to the TEDx Manhattan stage in New York City with her presentation "New Roads to New Markets." Breakout sessions include Salina Area Local Food Assessment, presented by Barb Goode, Engineering Extension Specialist at K-State; Food Policy Boards by Natasha Frost, Public Health Law Center; Food Hubs by Chris Sramek, High Plains Food Co-op; and Farmer's Markets by Katie Uhde, Farmers Market Coordinator.

Registration includes keynote speaker, luncheon featuring foods purchased and prepared locally, healthy breaks and breakout sessions. Early Bird Registration is $25 if received by July 21; $30 after July 22. Go to salinaymca.org and click on Register today to set up an account and register for the Food Summit. Call (785) 825-2151 to register over the phone with credit card. Deadline to register July 27.

Good Sports!

July is All about that Baseball!

The Kansas Grand Slam Baseball Tournament, a fixture in Salina will celebrate its Silver Anniversary, 25 years in Salina! The tournament will be held July 2-5 at the East Crawford Recreation Area.

Sixteen teams in the 19-Under and 17-Under age divisions from Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska will compete in pool play and bracket play over a four-day period at Dean Evans Stadium and James Matson Field. Eight teams will compete in the 19-Under division and eight in the 17-Under.

The 25th annual wood bat tournament, which also features Salina's two American Legion teams, the Falcons and Hawks, begins at 10am on Thursday, July 2. The championship games will be held Sunday afternoon on July 5, with the 17-Under division deciding the title on James Matson Field at 2:30pm and the 19-Under division holding its championship game at Dean Evans Stadium at 3pm.

Admission Prices: $5 per day for adults 18 and over; $3 per day for 10-17 year olds; 9 and under are free. An individual tournament pass is $15. For more tournament information, go to: <http://www.kansasgrandslam.org>

The American Legion Baseball Class A State Tournament will also return to Dean Evans Stadium, July 21-25, 2015. The tournament was last held in Salina in 2011.

The event will feature eight teams from across Kansas. The Salina Hawks will be the host team and have an automatic entry into the tournament. On Tuesday, games will be played at 1, 3, 6 and 8pm. On Wednesday and Thursday, four games will be played each day at 10am, noon, 6 and 8 pm. On Friday, games will be played at 10am and noon, and if necessary, the "if" game will be played on Saturday at 10am.

Ticket prices are $4 for adults and $1 for children. To volunteer, become a sponsor, or get more information, contact Byron Tomlins (785) 493-2175.

Preparations underway for the next Leadership Salina class

Applications are currently being accepted for the next Leadership Salina class. The program, a project of the Chamber and Greater Salina Community Foundation, is designed to develop leaders who will have the skills and capacities to move Salina and local organizations and businesses forward. The program consists of seven sessions, one session every two weeks beginning September 3, plus a 2 ½ day Kansas Community Leadership Summit in Wichita. The program concludes November 19.

Leadership skills included in the program are Learning Styles; Steps to a Performing Community; Wisdom Cycle; Consensus and Collaboration; Vision Process; Facilitation Techniques; Creative Thinking; Listening; Storytelling; and Servant Leadership.

The program is open to all interested persons. The maximum class size is 30 individuals. Tuition is $450 per person, which includes all materials, meals, social functions, and lodging. Partial scholarships are available.

Anyone wishing to receive more information on the program can contact the Chamber office, 120 W. Ash, (785) 827-9301. Applications are due August 3, and are available at the Chamber office or can be downloaded by clicking on "Leadership Salina" on the Chamber website homepage at www.salinakansas.org.
