Our mission is to welcome women & their families to the Salina Community and develop lifelong friendships! We know that for many, moving to a new community provides a number of challenges which at times can feel daunting especially, without a network of friends. Salina Newcomers' wants to be your network! Our hope is that our mission will be accomplished by providing each member with a host of opportunities to learn about Salina's cultural, epicurean and family offerings in casual settings.

Newcomers & Friends is made up of individuals new or returning to Salina. Membership years are unlimited. The organization is for women; Newcomers includes members who are single; married; full-time and part-time workers; stay-at-home moms, those with grown children, no children & everything in between.
